PMI Bangalore India Chapter is proud to bring to you the 13th edition of Project Management Practitioners’ Conference, the PMPC 2018, with a theme of ARCHITECTING PROJECT MANAGEMENT for value creation…. The Chapter is the 2nd largest PMI Chapter in the Asia Pacific region and two-time winner of Best Chapter Award for Outreach and Member Services. The Chapter was also a finalist for Best Chapter Award among large category in 2017. The Project Management Practitioners’ Conference launched in 2006 has evolved into a multi-track thematic event with ample learning and networking opportunities during every minute of the conference. Multi-Disciplinary model built around PMI Talent Triangle helps professionals across diverse industries, segments and experience levels.

For the first time, the Conference has focused sessions on two industry sectors apart from the regular cross industry sessions -

- Full day industry symposiums with keynotes, case studies and panel discussions for Engineering & Construction Industry, and Defence, Aerospace and PSUs sectors.
- Industry talks, papers, posters and case studies throughout the other two days of the conference.

The industries covered will be:

- Cross-Industry - Information Technology, Manufacturing, Finance, Academia, Healthcare
- Engineering & Construction
- Defence, Aerospace and Public Sector Units

Value Creation for Business and Stake Holders has become an essential ingredient of business transactions. Project Managers are expected to create value in their projects which implies that the mind set to define and plan for value creation has to be ingrained at all levels of the organization hierarchy. The focus of this conference is to bring industry leaders to share their experiences on how they have delivered value in their respective organizations. Value Creation is possible through

- Capability Enhancement – Ability to deliver
- Digital Transformation – Connected Processes
- Global Reach – Deliver for the world
- Smart Practices – Discover, Disrupt, Deliver

PMPC 2018 aims to bring thought leaders, industry experts and professionals on a great platform to discover strategic forces that would shape industries, core skills in leading people and advancements in project management practices focused on Value Creation...

Project Management Practitioners

- PMI Members
- PM Certification holders
- Decision Makers / Managers in IT, Government and other industries
- Business Executives and aspiring leaders
- Students and Faculties from Academic Institutions and Education Providers
